Mrs. Mills' 'Madonna' Wins First Place Award

At the recent American Association of University Women's State Convention held in San Diego, Mrs. Roger Mills, Manhattan Beach member, was awarded first place and Best of the Show in the AAUW State Art Exhibit. "Starlight Madonna" was one of 78 entries exhibited by AAUW members throughout the state of California. The 4 foot by 8 foot panel is an original design created in Italian Venetian glass tile.

The mosaic panel took 13 months to complete and for Mrs. Mills it "fulfilled a desire to create a religious mosaic of beauty through the use of color, shading and the simple background which surrounds and emphasizes the figures with light."

The panel has been exhibited at this year's madonna Festival and featured in the Music and Art Festival of the First Methodist Church of Hawthorne.

The artist, a resident of Torrance for ten years, is a graduate of Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas. She received her B.A. in Art, majoring in costume design. Mrs. Mills was formerly a dress designer in Los Angeles before retiring to raise her two daughters, Carol and Connie.
